

19th Feb 2007

Dear Parents,

Welcome back, after what I hope has been a relaxing break. I have included the diary for the coming half term with dates of events planned so far.

Reading Scheme

As you may know we are reviewing our current reading scheme and as part of this process would welcome your views. There is a questionnaire enclosed with this letter and we would be very grateful if you could complete this and return it to school by Friday 23rd February.

Many Thanks

Dinner Money

Dinner money for the next half term will be £45 (30 days) £7.50 per week, paid on the first day of the week in a named envelope please.

Friday dinners can be paid in advance for the half term - £9 (6 weeks).

Book Week

Book Week is taking place in school from Monday 5th March – Friday 9th. Throughout the week we have many events planned to promote reading, storytelling and poetry. On Thursday 8th March Richard Burns a published poet from Cambridge will be visiting us to lead various workshop sessions. He will start the day with a workshop for Y2 & Y3. After morning break he will work with reception & Y1, after lunch he will focus on Y4 and finally he will conduct an assembly at the end of the day and children may contribute examples of their work. Richard Burns is known as ‘Hat Man’ and he uses hats to engage the children. Parents are very welcome to attend any of his sessions and children may bring their own hats into school for that day.

Richard Burns has his own poetry book for sale, and any advance ordered copies will be signed. The book is entitled ‘Half of Nowhere’ and costs £4.50. If you wish to order a copy please complete the attached reply and send it to the school office with the money enclosed (Cheques made payable to Templefield School Funds). There will be copies of the book available on the day.

Book Fair

A reminder to parents that the Book Fair will be in school from Tuesday (afternoon) 27th February - Monday 12th March.

If any parent is able to help with this either before or after school please let the office know. Many Thanks

Cleaner Required

We currently have a vacancy for a cleaner. This post is for 7 ½ hours per week Mon – Fri term time plus some holiday time. If you are interested please contact the school office.

Yours sincerely

Lynne Birch
